

Here are three entries for the Co-Existence Festival Art Competition – April 2007 in New Brunswick, NJ. For more info go to: http://www.coexistencefestival.org/art_competition.cfm

I asked two graphic designer friends to help me create these entries.

My first concept was produced by one of our members, Leigh Stoecker of Stoecker Graphic Design. I asked for “iconic” and I think she delivered powerfully.

I asked my friend David DeSantis of DeSantis Graphic Design (who has provided other artwork for Red Bank Humanists) to take this same concept and give me something in a “Picasso style.”

I love how these two artists used their great talents to create such unique artwork.

I also asked David to develop this concept. Pithy...and it makes me laugh as well. For it's true: if we all thought of ourselves as “earthlings,” we might stop fighting each other long enough to actually evolve into something better.

Although we did not win, I am very proud of our messages and the excellent work contributed by our friends. If you ever need graphic design work, please contact one of these fine folks.

All the best,
Steelman
